

Art'ù Artistic Foundry

Florence - Italy

Tradition

Gaetano Salmista's foundry based in Florence, has 4 generations of experience collaborating with leading Italian and international artists and reproducing contemporary and historical bronze pieces also from photos and drawings.

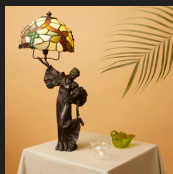

Lost wax

The lost wax casting process (lotus and ceramic) is entrusted to highly qualified personnel, with total respect for the original model and the artist's requests.

Handicraft & Customized

Each element is completely made with the artisan technique of lost wax casting, which makes it unique and totally customizable. Our collaborators are highly specialized, able to satisfy any requirement.

Innovation - 3d projects

The foundry has combined tradition and innovation introducing 3d modelling and 3d print as part of the work process, reducing distance and time.
